

Cookie policy

On our website we use cookies. A cookie is a small file that stores information in your browser. For that we need your consent.

What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small piece of data that a website asks your browser to store on your computer or mobile device. The cookie allows the website to "remember" your actions or preferences over time.

Most Internet browsers support cookies; however, users can set their browsers to decline certain types of cookies or specific cookies. Further, users can delete cookies at any time..

Why do we use cookies?

Some of the cookies used by us are indispensable for the proper operation of our sites, while others collect information related to their use, allowing us to upgrade our sites to offer even more convenient and useful services. Temporary or "session cookies" are erased when the browser is closed while "permanent cookies" stay in your browser for a longer time.

The website uses the following three types of cookies

1. Cookies required for the operation of the website:

These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly and to provide quality service.

2. Funkcional cookies

These cookies allow us to analyze the use and operation of the site in order to assess and further improve the performance and usability of the site.

Google Analytics	We use Google Analytics to understand how our media campaigns work and how you interact with our website in order to improve the user experience.
------------------	---

3. Advertising and remarketing cookies

With the help of these cookies, we are able to display relevant ads to you.

Google Adwords	Google Adwords Conversion tracking cookies enable us to understand if you complete certain actions on our website(s) after you have seen or clicked through one of our adverts served via Google.

Checking 'cookie preferences', disabling 'cookies'

Modern browsers allow you to change the 'cookie' settings. Some browsers allow 'cookies' by default although you can change this setting at any time to prevent automatic acceptance. If you change the setting the browser will ask you every time to decide what to do with the 'cookies'

Please note that "cookies" are intended to improve the functionality of our website and to support its processes. If you disable "cookies" you may not be able to use all our website's functions and the site may not work in your browser as intended.

You can also delete cookies at any time by deleting the browser history.
